

Community Guidelines

Don't send people Bubbles they don't want to receive—especially if the Bubble is mean.

Be thoughtful about what you Bubble and whom you send it to. It's okay with us if someone takes a screenshot, but we can't speak for you or your friends. Keep in mind that your friend can always capture the image with another camera.

Keep it legal. Don't use BubbleTeaApp for any illegal shenanigans.

What not to Bubble:

• Pornography

- BubbleTeaApp prohibits accounts that any service to distribute sexually explicit content or promote sexually explicit content.
- Sexually explicit content includes depict real or implied sexual acts or nudity in a sexual context.

• Sexually suggestive content involving minors (people under the age of 18)

- Never post or send sexual content involving people under the age of 18 -- even yourself.
- This includes adding drawings or captions to a Bubble message to make it sexual -- even as a joke.

• Invasions of privacy

- Do not take screenshot of people without their knowledge and consent.
- Take extra care not to violate people's privacy in private spaces, like someone's home, a bathroom, dressing room, or locker room.

• Threats

- Never threaten to harm a person, group of people, or their property.

- Intimidating people is not okay.
- Harassment, bullying, or spamming
- This one should be simple: Do not bother or make other people feel bad on purpose.
- If someone blocks you, it's not okay to contact them from another account.
- Impersonation
- Don't pretend to be someone you're not—including celebrities, brands, or other organizations.

If you violate these rules, we may remove the offending content or terminate your account. If your account is terminated, you won't be allowed to use BubbleTeaApp again.

Please take these rules seriously and honor them in the spirit in which they are intended. The rules will change and evolve along with the BubbleTeaApp user community. We will do our best to enforce them consistently and fairly, and ultimately we'll try to do what we think is best in each situation, at our own discretion.